-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --
Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. This action is in response to the remark entered on December 16th, 2009.
2. Claims 1 – 3, 5 – 11, and 13 – 18 are pending in current application.
3. Claims 1 – 3 and 11 have been amended.
4. Claims 4 and 12 have been cancelled.
5. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

6. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

7. Claim 10 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

As for claim 10, the phrase, "a state of equipment associated with", does not provide in a full, clear and concise as of the manner and process of making and using it, as shall contained in the written description of the specification.

8. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

9. Claim 10 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

As for claim 1, the phrase, " a state of equipment associated with ", does not distinctly and particularly pointing out the claiming subject matter that shall concluded with one or more claims in the specification.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

10. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

11. Claims 1-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Flick, 2005/0190080.

12. Flick discloses dividing the route into a plurality of partial sections, defining for each section a required information flow from the vehicle and adapting the communication to the definition in paragraphs 95, 96, 97, 161-167, 171-194, 213-216, 221-237, 239, and 266-275; creating a set of parameters which define at least one of when messages should be sent and contents of the messages, communicating the set to the vehicle so that the communication unit is capable of adapting to the communication in paragraphs 171-194; associating each partial section with one of a plurality of predetermined classes, which define an adaptation of the information flow and determining which class the current partial section is associated with an adapting the communication according to this class in paragraphs 171-194; shifting between time controlled communication and time controlled communication in paragraphs 222-237; changing a longest time period which is allowed to pass before the next messages are sent, changing the fixed longest section along which the vehicle is allowed to travel before the next messages are sent, indicating fixed points along the route at which messages are to be sent, indicating an event which is to initiate transmission of a message, affecting the contents of the message, the message contains information about at least one of vehicle position, speed, and state of the vehicle equipment in paragraphs 222-237; associating each partial section with one of a plurality of predetermined classes, which each define an adaptation of the information flow and determining which class the current partial section is associated with and adopting the communication according to the class in paragraphs 171-194.

Response to Arguments

13. In response to applicant's remark that Flick does not show the recited claim limitation, "adapting a communication based on said parameters, the adapting including shifting between a time-controlled communication and a distance controlled communication"; applicant's attention is directed to Flick, Para 0072, where a sequence of codes or message were provided in a predetermined time, which is the time-controlled communication, which is the by-default use of the communication method further discussed in Para 0095,0096; applicant's attention is further directed to Paragraph 0222, where a reduced rate of transmission is provided; which is the shifting to be determined if the vehicle is in a predetermined area as the distance controlled communication method for further variation/embodiment.

Conclusion

14. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
